NEW BUSINESS:

Mrs. Cottis; nothing.

Mr. Warner; nothing.

Mr. Peterson; bring out for discussion that we took our recycle bins out and have been researching a program with Sugarcreek; they have a partnership with Kimble, curb side pickup and recycling. Really good program. Uhrichsville was 4th in county for recycling. It will eliminate trash trucks parked on roads. We will hold town meetings and get feedback. Mr. Bollon said he is waiting for one more piece of the puzzle.

Mrs. Mick; Between East Bank and Dawson alot of properties don't have addresses on the houses and there is an Ordinance 1320 there has to be addresses. Citizens of Ward 2, driving by and writing down high grass and homes with no address.

Mr. Baker; a few weeks ago Adopt a Youth; cleaned up parts and trail.

Mr. Grandison; nothing.

Visitors:

- Ralph Allen, nothing.
- Kathy Allen, donating money to the library on every shirt sold.
- Diane Aberth-Lemonte; Selling water to Chesapeake? Mr. Haney said yes it is on Nardi property. Garbage system go for it. Read a letter they sent to all business owners for donations for the 175th celebration. There will also be a city wide garden contest.
- Beth Cush; Gift baskets at Mako's; this committee started 1 1/2 years ago; no penny from Uhrichsville was used.
- Dwight Johns; Is the trash project profitable for the city? Some businesses have dumpsters and he has used CSW and no one from Kimble has ever contacted him. Are you going to bid this to other companies? Mr. Haney said we don't have all the answers that's why we will hold public meetings.
- Deb Wenger; trash and junk on Davis Street, Mr. Bollon said the homeowner said it is zoned agriculture and he is checking into this; she is dissapointed the setback passed at the last meeting; She will work with Mr. Bollon on a screening ordinance.
- Joe Garrett; Trebel LLC; aggregate on electric and gave a handout of information
- Ed Lee, Kimble; Joel did a good job and great opportunity to present trash program.

Mr. Hillyer; Under ORC first have to see if we can piggy back on Sugarcreek's program and need to give the Mayor permission to discuss this with Sugarcreek;
