

A significant snowstorm is expected to impact our area. Please refer to the attached winter storm briefing for details.

The City of Uhrichsville is preparing equipment and crews, and we will be out on the roads to address conditions as the storm moves in.

If possible, please arrange alternate parking off the streets to allow for efficient plowing operations.

For your safety, stay home, if possible, use caution if you must travel, allow for more time, and stay safe!